PART I EXPLANATORY NOTE FROM THE OLD MUTUAL BOARD

The Old Mutual Board is pleased to announce that Old Mutual will unbundle the majority of its shareholding in the issued share capital of Nedbank on Monday, 15 October 2018, in line with the anticipated timeline previously communicated by Old Mutual plc to its shareholders on 20 April 2018. In consultation with Nedbank and following engagement with our advisors, we believe that now is the appropriate time to complete this distribution. This announcement sets out the necessary information for Old Mutual Shareholders regarding the Nedbank Unbundling and the key dates for noting.

Overview of Nedbank Unbundling

Rationale for distribution

The Nedbank Unbundling is the final step of the Managed Separation, which was materially completed during the six months ended 30 June 2018. The Old Mutual Board believes that the Nedbank Unbundling continues to be in the best interests of Old Mutual Shareholders as it:

- allows investors to participate in the substantially different investment cases of Old Mutual and Nedbank;

- provides a substantial return of capital to Old Mutual Shareholders; and
- supports the efficient allocation of capital and underpins mutually beneficial arm's length commercial arrangements through the retention of a minority stake of 19.9% in Nedbank in the Group's shareholder funds.

Each qualifying Old Mutual Shareholder will receive Nedbank Shares (which are listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and the Namibian Stock Exchange) in the ratio illustrated below:

Shares held in Old Mutual will be unaffected. Other than as detailed below, if you are an Old Mutual Shareholder as at the Record Time, Nedbank Shares will be distributed to you in addition to the Old Mutual Shares held by you as at the Record Time.

The distribution of Nedbank Shares to Old Mutual Shareholders could result in fractional entitlements for recipients. For example, if you hold 100 Old Mutual Shares, you will receive 3 Nedbank Shares and a fractional entitlement to 0.21176 of a Nedbank Share. If you hold 1,000 Old Mutual Shares, then you will receive 32 Nedbank Shares and a fractional entitlement to 0.1176 of a Nedbank Share. You will receive cash in respect of this fractional entitlement. Refer to paragraph 3.2 of Part II below for more detail on the treatment of such fractional entitlements.

Certain restricted Old Mutual Shareholders will have their entitlements to Unbundled Nedbank Shares sold for cash and the proceeds distributed to them. Refer to paragraph 2 of Part III of this announcement for more information.

The Nedbank Unbundling will take place on Monday, 15 October 2018. Refer to paragraph 3.3 of Part II below for the detailed expected timeline.

Based on the Nedbank Share price on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange on the Last Practicable Date, the total distribution to Old Mutual Shareholders is approximately R43.2 billion.

The Nedbank Unbundling was approved by Old Mutual plc shareholders as part of the scheme of arrangement in terms of which the Managed Separation was approved. Approvals for the Nedbank Unbundling were also received from all applicable regulators and stock exchanges as part of the Managed Separation regulatory engagement process.

Impact of the Nedbank Unbundling on key financial metrics

The financial information presented below is the responsibility of the directors of Old Mutual and has been based on the most recently published Interim Results of Old Mutual for the six months ended 30 June 2018. The impact of the Nedbank Unbundling has been calculated using the financial information and accounting policies as disclosed in the Interim Results of Old Mutual for the six months ended 30 June 2018 and the Nedbank Share price on the Last Practicable Date. Shareholders are advised that the financial information included in this announcement has not been reviewed or reported on by the Group's auditors.

The financial information has been prepared to illustrate the impact of the Nedbank Unbundling on certain key financial metrics of the Group, and is therefore included for illustrative purposes only and due to the nature thereof does not reflect the actual financial position or results of Old Mutual. No account has been taken of the trading results or other changes in the financial position since 30 June 2018 except for the adjustments in respect of the Nedbank Unbundling.

Unaudited pro forma financial information	Notes	6 months ended 30 June 2018	Impact of Nedbank Unbundling	Pro forma 6 months ended 30 June 2018

Return on Net Asset Value ("RoNAV")	1	17.5%	-	17.5%

IFRS profit after tax attributable to equity holders of the parent (Rm) ²	2	10,648	22,155	32,803
Total Equity (Rm) ³	3	151,957	(61,749)	90,207

Notes to the unaudited pro forma financial information

1. There is no impact to the AHE and RoNAV outcomes and the Group Solvency ratio as these measures have previously been disclosed in Old Mutual's 2018 Interim Results on the basis that the Nedbank Unbundling had already occurred. For the six months ended 30 June 2018, these disclosures are available in Old Mutual's 2018 Interim Results. For the 2017, 2016 and 2015 financial years, these disclosures were included in the pre-listing statement in respect of Old Mutual which is available on Old Mutual's website at www.oldmutual.com.

2. The illustrative impact to IFRS profit after tax attributable to equity holders of the parent for the six months ended 30 June 2018 of R22,155 million comprises the following components:

- A profit of R24,439 million on the deemed distribution of all Nedbank Shares owned by Old Mutual. The profit is calculated as the difference between the market value and the consolidated net asset value of Nedbank Shares on the Distribution Date.
- A decrease of R2,284 million in IFRS profit after tax for the 6 months ended 30 June 2018. A lower portion of profit after tax will be included in Old Mutual's results, reflecting this change in ownership going forward. The IFRS profit after tax for the 6 months ended 30 June 2018 includes income from the current holding in Nedbank on a consolidated basis. Post the Nedbank Unbundling, the retained stake of 19.9% in Nedbank will be accounted for as an investment in an associate per IFRS requirements. The decrease of R2,284 million reflects the pro forma impact as if the Nedbank Unbundling had occurred on 1 January 2018.

3. The illustrative impact to Total Equity of R61,749 million as at 30 June 2018 comprises the following components:

- Derecognition of the net asset value of Nedbank on a consolidated basis resulting in a decrease of R88,850 million.
- An increase in Total Equity of R27,101 million representative of the retained stake of 19.9% in Nedbank deemed to be acquired at fair value in accordance with IFRS requirements. The fair value applied is expected to be the market value of the Nedbank Shares on the Distribution Date. For illustrative purposes, we have applied the market value of the Nedbank Shares as at the Last Practicable Date.

Old Mutual after the Nedbank Unbundling

The Group currently holds approximately 52% of the issued share capital of Nedbank in its shareholder funds. After the Nedbank Unbundling, the Group will retain a minority interest of 19.9% of the issued share capital of Nedbank in the shareholder funds of Old Mutual Life Assurance Company (South Africa) Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old Mutual.

The existing arm's length commercial arrangements between Old Mutual and Nedbank will not be affected by the Nedbank Unbundling. These arrangements are contained in the 'relationship agreement' entered into between Old Mutual and Nedbank, which will govern the terms of their relationship upon completion of the Managed Separation and replaces the historic relationship agreement between Old Mutual plc and Nedbank, a copy of which is available on both the Old Mutual website at www.oldmutual.com and the Nedbank website at www.nedbankgroup.co.za.

Nedbank odd-lot offer

Old Mutual Shareholders are referred to the announcement published by Nedbank on SENS on Wednesday, 26 September 2018 simultaneously with the release of this announcement by Old Mutual. Nedbank has indicated its intention to consider implementing an odd-lot offer following the Nedbank Unbundling and as soon as practicably possible, subject to market conditions and all requisite approvals and in accordance with JSE Listings Requirements, to all eligible Nedbank shareholders holding less than 100 Nedbank Shares, in order to enable these Nedbank shareholders to more efficiently dispose of their odd lot holdings should they so wish and to manage the expanded nature of the Nedbank SA Register and the Nedbank Namibian Register following the implementation of the Nedbank Unbundling.

Old Mutual Shareholders holding less than 100 Nedbank Shares are advised that, in the context of an odd-lot offer, they will be required to make a positive election should they prefer to retain their Nedbank Shares.

The Nedbank announcement is available on Nedbank's website at www.nedbankgroup.co.za.

PART II THE UNBUNDLING BY OLD MUTUAL OF NEDBANK SHARES

1. Background

- 1.1 On 11 March 2016, Old Mutual plc announced that its board of directors believed that the long-term interests of Old Mutual plc shareholders and other stakeholders would be best served by separating the four businesses then owned by the Old Mutual plc group from each other so that they could operate as fully independent businesses. This strategic initiative was described as the Managed Separation of the Old Mutual plc group. The Managed Separation was materially completed in June 2018, following the demerger and listing of Quilter plc on the London Stock Exchange and the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and the listing of the Old Mutual Shares on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange, the Malawi Stock Exchange, the Namibian Stock Exchange, the London Stock Exchange and the Zimbabwe Stock Exchange.
- 1.2 The final step in the Managed Separation, being the distribution of a significant portion of the Group's shareholding in Nedbank to Old Mutual Shareholders on the Register at that time (i.e. the Nedbank Unbundling), was envisaged to take place in the final quarter of 2018. As announced by Old Mutual plc in November 2017, the Group will retain a minority stake of 19.9% of the issued share capital of Nedbank in its shareholder funds after the implementation of the Nedbank Unbundling.
- 1.3 Old Mutual Shareholders are referred to the Old Mutual plc scheme circular dated 20 April 2018 and are advised that the conditions to the Nedbank Unbundling, as set out in the scheme circular, have been satisfied. A copy of the scheme circular may be accessed on Old Mutual's website at www.oldmutual.com for information purposes only. The scheme circular, however, does not form a part of this announcement and its provisions are not incorporated by reference.
- 1.4 The Old Mutual Board has determined that the Nedbank Unbundling will be implemented on Monday, 15 October 2018, being the Distribution Date.

2. Nedbank

- 2.1 The Old Mutual plc group acquired a majority interest in Nedbank, which was at the time known as Nedcor Limited, in 1986. Nedbank is a diversified financial services provider offering a wide range of wholesale and retail banking services, as well as insurance, asset management and wealth management solutions. It delivers its products and services through four main business clusters: (i) Nedbank Corporate and Investment Banking, (ii) Nedbank Retail and Business Banking, (iii) Nedbank Wealth, and (iv) Nedbank Rest of Africa.

- 2.2 Nedbank ranks within the top-5 banks by capital on the African continent and Ecobank Transnational Incorporated ("Ecobank"), in which Nedbank holds a 21.2% shareholding, ranks within the top-10 banks by assets on the African continent. Nedbank is South Africa's third-largest bank by market capitalisation and fourth-largest by total assets and headline earnings. It is a leading corporate bank and a market leader in commercial property and renewable energy finance and has a strong position in household motor finance, household deposits and card acquiring. It operates a unique asset management model as part of an integrated wealth management business. Through its pan-African banking alliance with Ecobank, Nedbank provides its customers access to Africa's largest banking network.
- 2.3 For further information on Nedbank, Old Mutual Shareholders are referred to Nedbank's public disclosures. Nedbank's public disclosures are not part of this announcement and are not incorporated by reference herein.

3. The Nedbank Unbundling

3.1 Ratio of entitlement

- 3.1.1 The Old Mutual Board has resolved to implement the Nedbank Unbundling by way of a distribution in specie of Nedbank Shares in terms of section 46(1)(a)(i) of the Companies Act and out of Old Mutual's contributed tax capital (as such term is construed under the South African Income Tax Act, No. 58 of 1962). Old Mutual will distribute 158,726,732 Nedbank Shares (i.e. the Unbundled Nedbank Shares), (comprising 31.73% of the issued Nedbank Shares as at the Last Practicable Date) to Old Mutual Shareholders on the Register at the Record Time, being 5:00 p.m. (SA time) / 4:00 p.m. (UK time) on Friday, 12 October 2018.

- 3.1.2 Subject to the restrictions set out below, Old Mutual Shareholders reflected on the Register at the Record Time will receive:

3.21176 Nedbank Shares

for every 100 Old Mutual Shares held.

- 3.1.3 Old Mutual Shareholders who sell or otherwise transfer their Old Mutual Shares prior to the relevant LDT will not receive any Nedbank Shares.

3.2 Fractional entitlements, Cash Proceeds and Applicable Rate

- 3.2.1 As required by the JSE Listings Requirements, fractional entitlements to Unbundled Nedbank Shares will be rounded down to the nearest whole number and the aggregated fractions of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares to which an Old Mutual Shareholder would otherwise be entitled will not be transferred to them, but will instead be sold in the market as soon as practicable after the Nedbank Unbundling.
- 3.2.2 Old Mutual Shareholders will accordingly receive monetary compensation in respect of their fractional entitlements to Nedbank Shares. In accordance with JSE Listings Requirements, this amount will be determined with reference to the volume weighted average price in Rand of a Nedbank Share traded on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange on Wednesday, 10 October 2018, being the first trading day in Old Mutual Shares on the SA Register after the LDT on Tuesday, 9 October 2018, reduced by 10% ("Cash Proceeds").
- 3.2.3 The Cash Proceeds will be paid (i) by Old Mutual to the relevant registered Certificated Old Mutual Shareholders and (ii) by a nominee or CSDP to the relevant Old Mutual Shareholders that hold their Old Mutual Shares in Uncertificated Form within a nominee account or within a CSDP.

- 3.2.4 Old Mutual Shareholders on the Namibian Register, Malawian Register, UK Register and the Zimbabwean Register will be paid the local currency cash equivalents of the Cash Proceeds. The Cash Proceeds will be converted to local currency at the effective rate quoted by Old Mutual on or before the date upon which payment of the Cash Proceeds is made to the relevant Old Mutual Shareholders ("Applicable Rate").
- 3.2.5 The basis for the Cash Proceeds and the Applicable Rate will be announced by Old Mutual on SENS, the London Stock Exchange's Regulatory News Service ("RNS") and the news services of the Malawi Stock Exchange, the Namibian Stock Exchange and the Zimbabwe Stock Exchange on Thursday, 11 October 2018).

3.1.1.3 The Record Time applies to all Old Mutual Shareholders regardless of the applicable Register on which their Old Mutual Shares are held.

3.1.2 Overseas Old Mutual Shareholders

3.1.2.1 If, in respect of any Overseas Old Mutual Shareholder, Old Mutual is advised that the distribution of Unbundled Nedbank Shares would or may infringe the laws of any jurisdiction outside South Africa, Malawi, Namibia, the United Kingdom or Zimbabwe, or would or may require Old Mutual or Nedbank to comply with any governmental or other consent or any registration, filing or other formality with which Old Mutual or Nedbank is unable to comply or compliance with which Old Mutual or Nedbank regards as unduly onerous, then Old Mutual shall deliver the relevant Unbundled Nedbank Shares to the SA Nominee, who shall receive the Unbundled Nedbank Shares on behalf of the relevant Overseas Old Mutual Shareholders.

3.1.2.2 All Unbundled Nedbank Shares to which the restriction in paragraph 3.1.2.1 applies that are transferred to the SA Nominee shall be sold in the market as soon as practicable following the Distribution Date. Any such sale/s shall be carried out at the best price which can reasonably be obtained at the time of sale and the net proceeds of such sale/s (after the deduction of all expenses and commissions incurred in connection with such sale) shall be paid to the relevant Overseas Old Mutual Shareholder by the SA Nominee by way of electronic funds transfer to the extent that the SA Nominee has, or is provided with, bank account details for such Overseas Old Mutual Shareholder, and failing which, by sending a cheque as soon as reasonably practicable after the SA Nominee receives such proceeds. Old Mutual Shareholders on the Namibian Register, Malawian Register, UK Register and the Zimbabwean Register will be paid the local currency cash equivalents of such net proceeds, which will be converted to local currency at the relevant spot rate on the day upon which such net proceeds are paid to the relevant Old Mutual Shareholders. The SA Nominee shall further send to each such Overseas Old Mutual Shareholder a statement of account reflecting the number of Unbundled Nedbank Shares sold, the price achieved in respect of such sale and the amount of all expenses and commissions incurred in connection with such sale.

3.1.2.3 The payment to any Overseas Old Mutual Shareholders of the proceeds from the sale of Unbundled Nedbank Shares in accordance with paragraph 3.1.2.2 will be in full and final satisfaction of the rights of such Overseas Old Mutual Shareholders to receive the relevant Unbundled Nedbank Shares.

that the selling party will become credited with Unbundled Nedbank Shares held through the SA Nominee, in order to assist those who are party to open transactions;

3.3.1.1.3 Settlement of transactions in Unbundled Nedbank Shares on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange may only take place in Uncertificated Form within the Strate System.

3.3.1.1.4 Old Mutual Shareholders whose Old Mutual Shares are held in Uncertificated Form are required to maintain an account with a CSDP or broker, and should instruct their CSDP or broker regarding voting and other matters in respect of their Unbundled Nedbank Shares in accordance with the mandate entered into between the beneficial holder and their CSDP or broker. If Old Mutual Shareholders wish to attend a Nedbank shareholders' meeting in person, they will need to request a proxy or voting instruction form from their CSDP or broker or appointed nominee in accordance with the terms of the mandate entered into between them and their CSDP, broker or nominee. Old Mutual Shareholders can contact their CSDP, broker or nominee for further information in this regard.

3.3.1.2 Settlement arrangements for Unbundled Nedbank Shares in respect of Old Mutual Shareholders who hold their Old Mutual Shares on the SA Register in Certificated Form, where such Unbundled Nedbank Shares will be traded on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange

The Malawian Nominee will be liable for direct damages incurred by Malawian Nominee Participants by reason of the Malawian Nominee's own wilful default or gross negligence and (except in the case of fraud) will not be liable for indirect, special or consequential loss or damages.

- 3.4.2.4 The Malawian Nominee will open and maintain share accounts in the name of the Malawian Nominee Participant to record the number or nominal value of the relevant Unbundled Nedbank Shares to which they are beneficially entitled and to record all transactions and entries made with respect to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares.

- 3.4.2.6 Instructions given by a Malawian Nominee Participant to the Malawian Nominee must be sent in writing to the address or to the email as stated in the Malawian Nominee Terms and Conditions. Malawian Nominee Participants accept the risk of loss or damage arising, directly or indirectly, as a result of any failure in, misuse of, or any fraud or misrepresentation due to the Malawian Nominee Participants' own failure to give a valid instruction in accordance with the Malawian Nominee Terms and Conditions. The Malawian Nominee will not incur any liability for acting on any instruction, direction or other communication on which the Malawian Nominee is authorised to rely under the Malawian Nominee Terms and Conditions.

- 3.4.2.9 Malawian Nominee Participants are required to be verified and the Malawian Nominee will not be liable for any delays that might be caused as a result of the verification process. Malawian Nominee Participants are required to indemnify and agree to hold the Malawian Nominee harmless against all liability, costs, expense or damage incurred by the Malawian Nominee or its agents arising as a consequence of the Malawian Nominee having acted on any forged, fabricated, inaccurate, invalid or unauthorised documentation, except as a result of the Malawian Nominee's own failure to comply with its verification obligations. A Malawian Nominee Participant is solely responsible to, and agrees to submit, a written dividend tax declaration if applicable, and to forthwith inform the withholding agent in writing should the circumstances of the Malawian Nominee Participant change.

3.5 Nominee arrangements put in place by Old Mutual Shareholders

Where Old Mutual Shareholders hold their Old Mutual Shares through a nominee, custody or trust arrangement (other than through the OMBN Nominee, the OMSAN Nominee, the OMNAN Nominee or a Zimbabwean Nominee) such that the nominee, custodian or trustee is the registered holder of the Old Mutual Shares on the relevant Register as at the Record Time, it is the responsibility of such Old Mutual Shareholders holding their Old Mutual Shares in this manner to confirm whether their nominee, custodian or trustee is eligible to receive Unbundled Nedbank Shares on their behalf, vote at general meetings of Nedbank and receive payments by Nedbank (among other things), pursuant to the arrangements described above. Old Mutual Shareholders holding their Old Mutual Shares through a nominee, custodian or trust arrangement should contact their nominee, custodian or trustee for further information in this regard.

4. Taxation

The following summary describes certain tax consequences in connection with the Nedbank Unbundling in South Africa, Malawi, Namibia, Sweden, the United Kingdom, the US and Zimbabwe only. This summary is based on the tax law and practice in force in the relevant jurisdiction as at the Last Practicable Date only, which are subject to change occasioned by future legislative amendments and court decisions, including changes that could have a retrospective effect. In the case of persons who are non-residents of South Africa for income tax purposes, this summary should be read in conjunction with the provisions of any applicable double tax agreement between South Africa and their country of residence.

This summary is general and non-exhaustive commentary to certain tax consequences of the Nedbank Unbundling and is intended to be used only as a general guide and does not constitute legal or tax advice. If you are in any doubt as to your tax position, you should consult an independent professional adviser immediately.

4.1 South African Taxation

- 4.1.1 This section 4.1 summarises the South African income tax treatment for an Old Mutual Shareholder that is a South African resident company, a non-South African resident company with a permanent establishment in South Africa or a South African resident retail shareholder that holds Old Mutual Shares as capital assets or as trading stock. For the purposes of this section 4.1, the term Old Mutual Shareholder must be construed accordingly.
- 4.1.2 The Old Mutual Board has specifically resolved to distribute the Unbundled Nedbank Shares as a return of capital (paid out of "contributed tax capital" ("CTC")). The distribution of the Nedbank Shares on the Nedbank Unbundling should therefore qualify as an "unbundling transaction" for purposes of section 46(1) of the South African Income Tax Act, 58 of 1962 (as amended) ("Income Tax Act") and should not be treated as a taxable event for Old Mutual Shareholders who are resident in South Africa. Consequently, the receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares by South African tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders should qualify for tax relief and should not constitute a "return of capital" or a "dividend" for South African tax purposes only. Dividends tax should therefore not apply. Consequently, the receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares by Old Mutual Shareholders who are non-resident of South Africa should still, however, be treated as a "return of capital" under general South African tax principles.

- 4.1.3 Old Mutual Shareholders should be required to allocate a portion of the expenditure attributable to the Old Mutual Shares held by them to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling. The expenditure with respect to Old Mutual Shareholders' Old Mutual Shares must be apportioned in accordance with an apportionment ratio described in more detail in paragraph 4.1.4 below.
- 4.1.4 The proportionate amount of the expenditure to be allocated to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares must be determined in accordance with the ratio that the market value of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares, as at the end of the day of that distribution, bears to the sum of the market value, as at that date, of the Old Mutual Shares and of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares (the "Apportionment Ratio"). The Apportionment Ratio is based on the closing share price per Old Mutual Share and the closing share price per Unbundled Nedbank Share on LDT+1 (as defined in the JSE Listings Requirements), being Wednesday, 10 October 2018.
- 4.1.5 In instances where Old Mutual Shareholders hold their Old Mutual Shares as trading stock, the expenditure used should be the amount originally taken into account by the Old Mutual Shareholder in respect of those Old Mutual Shares held prior to the Nedbank Unbundling as contemplated in section 11(a), section 22(1) and section 22(2) of the Income Tax Act. The expenditure to be allocated to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares should be determined by applying the Apportionment Ratio. Old Mutual Shareholders should be deemed to have incurred the expenditure allocated to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares on the date on which the expenditure was incurred in respect of the Old Mutual Shares.
- 4.1.6 Old Mutual Shareholders holding their Old Mutual Shares as capital assets should be deemed to have acquired a proportional number of Unbundled Nedbank Shares as capital assets. The expenditure incurred in respect of the Old Mutual Shares in terms of paragraph 20 of the Eighth Schedule to the Income Tax Act and the market value of those Old Mutual Shares should similarly be apportioned between the Unbundled Nedbank Shares and the Old Mutual Shares by applying the Apportionment Ratio. The portion of the expenditure allocated to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares should reduce the base cost of the Old Mutual Shares held. Old Mutual Shareholders should be deemed to have incurred the expenditure allocated to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares on the same date on which the expenditure was incurred in respect of the Old Mutual Shares.
- 4.1.7 As an illustrative example, assume that an Old Mutual Shareholder currently holds 100 Old Mutual Shares and receives 3.21176 Unbundled Nedbank Shares pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling. The Old Mutual Shareholder's expenditure for his 100 Old Mutual Shares is assumed to be R2,000.00. The market value per Old Mutual Share post the Nedbank Unbundling is assumed to be R22.22 per share (using the Old Mutual Share price of R30.96 as at the Last Practicable Date as a proxy) and that the market value of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares post the Nedbank Unbundling is R272.24 per share (using the Nedbank Share price at the Last Practicable Date as a proxy). The Apportionment Ratio would then be calculated as follows:

$$\text{Apportionment Ratio} = (A / (A + B))$$

Where:

A = the market value of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares at the close of the day after the Nedbank Unbundling (R874.37, being 3.21176 x R272.24 per share);

B = the market value of the Old Mutual Shares at the close of the day after the Nedbank Unbundling (R2,222.00, being 100 x R22.22 per share);

$$= (R874.37 / (R874.37 + R2,222.00));$$

$$= 28.24\%$$

- 4.1.7.1 The deemed expenditure to be attributed to the Unbundled Nedbank Shares (3.21176 Unbundled Nedbank Shares) would be calculated as 28.24% x R2,000, being R564.77, equating to deemed expenditure of R175.84 per Nedbank Share.
- 4.1.7.2 The deemed expenditure to be attributed in turn to the Old Mutual Shares (100 Old Mutual Shares) would be R2,000.00 - R564.77, being R1435.23, equating to deemed expenditure of R14.35 per Old Mutual Share.
- 4.1.8 No securities transfer tax should be payable by the Old Mutual Shareholders in respect of the receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares, given that the distribution qualifies as an "unbundling transaction" for purposes of section 46(1) of the Income Tax Act and is consequently exempt.
- 4.1.9 Note, however, that for purposes of Old Mutual Shareholders who are non-resident of South Africa, where the Unbundled Nedbank Shares are transferred through the agency of or from a member (i.e. a Johannesburg Stock Exchange stockbroker) or when the transfer of shares listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange is effected by a participant (i.e. a person that holds in custody and administers a listed share), the member or participant should be liable for the securities transfer tax. That member or participant may, however, recover the securities transfer tax payable from the Old Mutual Shareholders who are not resident in South Africa in respect of whose Old Mutual Shares the security transfer tax is payable.
- 4.1.10 For the purposes of the calculation of the securities transfer tax, the taxable amount shall be the following:
- 4.1.10.1 where shares listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange are transferred through the agency of or from a member (i.e. a Johannesburg Stock Exchange stockbroker), the securities transfer tax must be calculated on the purchase consideration; or
- 4.1.10.2 where the transfer of shares listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange is effected by a participant, the securities transfer tax must be calculated with reference to the declared consideration. If no consideration is declared or if the declared consideration is less than the lowest Johannesburg Stock Exchange traded price on the date of the transaction, the securities transfer tax must be calculated with reference to the closing price on that date.

4.2 Malawian Taxation

- 4.2.1 This section 4.2 summarises the Malawi income tax treatment for an Old Mutual Shareholder that is a Malawi resident company or a non-Malawi resident company with a Malawi permanent establishment that holds its Old Mutual Shares as capital assets and not as trading stock.
- 4.2.2 As the Unbundled Nedbank Shares will be distributed by Old Mutual from its CTC, the Nedbank Unbundling should, for Malawian tax purposes, not be treated as an in specie dividend distribution and will accordingly not be subject to withholding tax in Malawi.
- 4.2.3 However, in Malawi, any receipt of cash or asset is taxable as "income" in the hands of a Malawian resident. Therefore the receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares will be regarded as "income" in the hands of Malawian tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders.
- 4.2.4 Where income received is regarded as capital in nature, the taxpayer will need to identify a "tax basis" which may be offset against that taxable income. Malawian tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders will therefore establish a tax basis for the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received.
- 4.2.5 As regards tax on capital gains, this is calculated as the difference between the "amount realised" and the tax basis of the asset. Where there are no sale proceeds, the open market value of the asset disposed of is the "amount realised", while the tax basis will be the cost of the shares, adjusted for inflation/consumer price indices applicable from the date of acquisition to the date of disposal.

4.2.6 Since the Malawian tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders will not incur any costs or make any contributions for the receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares, there will likely be no tax basis for the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received, and hence the full open market value of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received will be taxable.

4.2.7 That market value will also form the tax basis of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received, for purposes of determining any capital gain or loss arising on the ultimate disposal of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares in future by the Malawi tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders.

4.3 Namibian Taxation

4.3.1 This section 4.3 summarises the Namibia income tax treatment for an Old Mutual Shareholder that is a Namibia resident company or a non-Namibia resident company with a Namibia permanent establishment and that holds its Old Mutual Shares as capital assets, not as trading stock (for purposes of this section 4.3 only, a "Namibian Shareholder").

4.3.2 The Nedbank Unbundling should, for Namibian income tax purposes, be treated as an in specie distribution of Unbundled Nedbank Shares by Old Mutual. Such distribution should not be taxable in the hands of the Namibian Shareholders.

4.4 United Kingdom Taxation

4.4.1 Save where expressly indicated, the comments below apply only to Old Mutual Shareholders resident and, in the case of an individual, domiciled or deemed domiciled for tax purposes in the United Kingdom and to whom "split year" treatment does not apply, who hold Old Mutual Shares as an investment and who are the absolute beneficial owners thereof. Certain categories of Old Mutual Shareholders, including those carrying on certain financial activities, those subject to specific tax regimes or benefiting from certain reliefs or exemptions, those connected with Old Mutual or the Group and those for whom the Old Mutual Shares are employment-related securities may be subject to special rules and this summary does not apply to such Old Mutual Shareholders.

4.4.2 Receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares and Cash Proceeds:

4.4.2.1 The receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares and any Cash Proceeds pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling will be a taxable event for Old Mutual Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom for United Kingdom tax purposes. As there is some technical uncertainty, Old Mutual has requested HMRC's views on whether the Nedbank Unbundling will be treated as income or as a capital distribution (part disposal) for United Kingdom tax purposes.

4.4.2.2 Based on an initial indication received by Old Mutual from HMRC, Old Mutual Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom for United Kingdom tax purposes should be subject to United Kingdom tax in respect of the Nedbank Unbundling in the same way as a dividend, with the consequences described below. This is subject to ongoing discussion with HMRC, and Old Mutual will provide an update in the event of any material change. Old Mutual Shareholders are recommended to consult with their own professional advisers to consider the implications for them in light of their own circumstances.

4.4.2.3 Individual Old Mutual Shareholders

4.4.2.3.1 On the basis of the initial indication received from HMRC, a United Kingdom resident individual Old Mutual Shareholder should not be subject to income tax in respect of the Nedbank Unbundling if the total amount of dividend income received by the individual in the tax year does not exceed a dividend allowance of £2,000, which will be taxed at a nil rate (the "Dividend Allowance"). The amount of the dividend income received by the individual in the tax year in which the Nedbank Unbundling occurs should include an amount equal to the market value (at the time of the Nedbank Unbundling) of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares and any Cash Proceeds received by the individual on the Nedbank Unbundling.

In determining the income tax rate or rates applicable to a United Kingdom resident individual Old Mutual Shareholder's taxable income, dividend income is treated as the highest part of such individual Old Mutual Shareholder's income. Dividend income that falls within the Dividend Allowance will count towards the basic or higher rate limits (as applicable) which may affect the rate of tax due on any dividend income in excess of the Dividend Allowance. To the extent that a United Kingdom resident individual Old Mutual Shareholder's dividend income (which should include an amount equal to the market value (at the time of the Nedbank Unbundling) of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares and any Cash Proceeds received pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling) for the tax year exceeds the Dividend Allowance and, when treated as the top slice of such individual shareholder's income, falls above such individual shareholder's personal allowance but below the basic rate limit, such an individual shareholder will be subject to tax on that dividend income at the dividend basic rate of 7.5%. To the extent that such dividend income falls above the basic rate limit but below the higher rate limit, such an individual Old Mutual Shareholder will be subject to tax on that dividend income at the dividend upper rate of 32.5%. To the extent that such dividend income falls above the higher rate limit, such an individual shareholder will be subject to tax on that dividend income at the dividend additional rate of 38.1%.

Corporate Old Mutual Shareholders

On the basis of the initial indication received from HMRC, Old Mutual Shareholders who are within the charge to United Kingdom corporation tax should be subject to corporation tax on the market value (at the time of the Nedbank Unbundling) of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares and the amount of any Cash Proceeds distributed to them pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling, unless (subject to special rules for such shareholders that are small companies) the distribution falls within an exempt class and certain other conditions are met. Each Old Mutual Shareholder's position will depend on its own individual circumstances, although it would generally be expected that the Nedbank Unbundling should fall within an exempt class.

Base Cost in Unbundled Nedbank Shares:

Old Mutual Shareholders who are resident in the United Kingdom or otherwise subject to United Kingdom corporation tax or capital gains tax should obtain an initial base cost in their Unbundled Nedbank Shares equal to the market value of their Unbundled Nedbank Shares at the time of the Nedbank Unbundling.

Stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax:

No United Kingdom stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax should be payable by Old Mutual Shareholders in respect of their receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling.

4.5

Zimbabwean Taxation

This section 4.5 summarises the Zimbabwe income tax treatment for an Old Mutual Shareholder that is a Zimbabwe resident company or a non-Zimbabwe resident company with a permanent establishment in Zimbabwe or an individual Old Mutual Shareholder that holds Old Mutual Shares as capital assets, not as trading stock. For the purposes of this section, the term "Old Mutual Shareholders" must be construed accordingly.

- 4.5.2 As the Unbundled Nedbank Shares will be distributed by Old Mutual from its CTC, the Nedbank Unbundling will therefore likely be regarded as a return of capital contribution or initial investment in the Zimbabwean tax-resident Old Mutual Shareholders' hands. Such receipts are likely to be regarded as capital receipts and not dividends.
- 4.5.3 The source of the capital receipts (being shares in a non-Zimbabwean company) is offshore and not in Zimbabwe and thus no tax should arise in Zimbabwe.
- 4.5.4 No Zimbabwean taxation should arise on receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares by non-residents, even if they have a permanent establishment in Zimbabwe.
- 4.5.5 No Zimbabwean stamp duty should be payable by Zimbabwean tax-resident Old Mutual Shareholders in respect of their receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares.

4.6 Certain US Federal Income Tax Considerations

- 4.6.1 This section 4.6 summarises certain United States federal income tax consequences relevant to Old Mutual Shareholders receiving Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds) pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling that are US Holders (as defined below) that hold their Old Mutual Shares as capital assets. The discussion does not cover all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to, or the actual tax effect that any of the matters described herein will have on the receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds) by particular investors (including consequences under the alternative minimum tax or net investment income tax) and does not address state, local, non-United States or other tax laws. This summary also does not address tax considerations applicable to investors that own (directly, indirectly or by attribution) 5% or more of the shares (by vote or value) of Old Mutual, nor does this summary discuss all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to certain types of investors subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax laws (such as financial institutions, insurance companies, entities and arrangements treated as partnerships for United States federal income tax purposes or holders of interests in such entities, individual retirement accounts and other tax-deferred accounts, tax-exempt organisations, dealers in securities or currencies, holders who acquired their Old Mutual Shares upon the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, holders that have held their Old Mutual Shares as part of straddles, hedging transactions or conversion transactions for United States federal income tax purposes, persons that have ceased to be United States citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States, investors holding the Old Mutual Shares in connection with a trade or business conducted outside the United States, or investors whose functional currency is not the US dollar).
- 4.6.2 As used in this section, the term "US Holder" means a beneficial owner of Old Mutual Shares that is, for United States federal income tax purposes, (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation created or organised in or under the laws of the United States or any State thereof, (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax without regard to its source or (iv) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or the trust has validly elected to be treated as a domestic trust for United States federal income tax purposes.
- 4.6.3 The United States federal income tax treatment of a partner in an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes that holds Old Mutual Shares will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. US Holders that are entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for United States federal income tax purposes should consult their tax advisers concerning the United States federal income tax consequences to them and their partners in respect of the Nedbank Unbundling.

- 4.6.4 Except as otherwise noted, this summary assumes that Old Mutual is not currently and was never a passive foreign investment company ("PFIC") for United States federal income tax purposes. If Old Mutual is or has been a PFIC in any taxable year during which a US Holder held its Old Mutual Shares, materially adverse consequences could result for such US Holder (see paragraph 4.6.6 below). If Old Mutual is treated as a PFIC with respect to a US Holder for the year in which the Nedbank Unbundling occurs, material adverse tax consequences could arise for such US Holder. US Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the potential application of the PFIC regime to the Nedbank Unbundling.
- 4.6.5 This section is based on the tax laws of the United States, including the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Revenue Code"), its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, as well as on the income tax treaty between the United States and South Africa (the "Treaty"), all as of the Last Practicable Date and all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retrospective effect.
- 4.6.6 The receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds) pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling is expected to be a taxable distribution by Old Mutual to US Holders, with the amount realised in the distribution by a US Holder equal to the fair market value of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds) distributed to it. The distribution generally would be treated as a dividend to the extent of Old Mutual's current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes). The amount of the distribution in excess of Old Mutual's current and accumulated earnings and profits generally would be treated as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the US Holder's basis in their Old Mutual Shares and thereafter as capital gain. However, Old Mutual does not maintain calculations of its earnings and profits for United States federal income tax purposes. US Holders should therefore assume that the entire amount deemed realised pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling would be reported as ordinary dividend income. The distribution would not be eligible for the dividends received deduction generally allowed to corporations. The distribution generally would be taxable to a non-corporate US Holder at the reduced rate normally applicable to long-term capital gains, provided Old Mutual qualifies for the benefits of the Treaty, and certain other requirements are met.
- 4.6.7 A US Holder would have a tax basis in the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received equal to their fair market value, determined in US dollars and the US Holder's holding period for the Unbundled Nedbank Shares would begin on the day of receipt of such Unbundled Nedbank Shares.
- 4.6.8 A non-United States corporation will be a PFIC in any taxable year in which, after taking into account the income and assets of the corporation and certain subsidiaries pursuant to applicable "look-through rules", either (i) at least 75% of its gross income is "passive income" or (ii) at least 50% of the average value of its assets is attributable to assets which produce passive income or are held for the production of passive income. For this purpose, "passive income" generally includes interest, dividends, royalties, rents and gains from commodities and securities transactions. Exceptions are provided for income derived in the active conduct of an insurance business and income derived in the active conduct of a banking business. A substantial portion of the income and assets of Old Mutual and its subsidiaries, including Nedbank and its subsidiaries, is attributable to passive assets held in connection with insurance and banking businesses conducted by certain of Old Mutual's subsidiaries and Nedbank's subsidiaries. Accordingly, the eligibility of these businesses for such exceptions is central to the determination of the PFIC status of Old Mutual.
- 4.6.9 Special rules under the PFIC regime generally allow banks to treat their banking business income as non-passive in certain circumstances. To qualify for these rules, a bank must satisfy certain requirements regarding its licensing and activities. Old Mutual believes that its and Nedbank's banking subsidiaries should currently meet these requirements.
- 4.6.10 It is unclear how to apply the PFIC rules and the active insurance exception to non-United States insurance companies, such as Old Mutual's insurance subsidiaries and Nedbank's insurance subsidiaries, offering products that, while conforming to the regulatory requirements applicable to insurance companies in their respective jurisdictions, do not conform to those applicable to United States insurance companies. Old Mutual believes that its insurance subsidiaries each met the requirements of the active insurance exception for 2016 and 2017. However, the United States Congress recently enacted legislation modifying certain aspects of the active insurance exception rules applicable to taxable years beginning after 31 December 2017. As a consequence, some of Old Mutual's insurance subsidiaries may not meet the requirements of the active insurance exception in 2018 or future years.

- 4.6.11 Based on its interpretation of the applicable law, the composition of its income, the valuation of its assets and the activities conducted by it and its subsidiaries, Old Mutual does not believe that it was a PFIC in the taxable year ended 31 December 2017 and does not expect to be a PFIC for the current taxable year. No assurance is given that Old Mutual was not a PFIC in any prior year. In addition, because these determinations are factual in nature and subject to change, there can be no assurance that the income and activities of the insurance subsidiaries and banking subsidiaries of Old Mutual and Nedbank have qualified in the past, currently qualify, or will qualify in the future, for the active insurance exception and/or the active banking exception, or that Old Mutual will not be a PFIC for the current year or in the future.
- 4.6.12 Distributions paid pursuant to the Nedbank Unbundling by a United States paying agent or other United States intermediary will be reported to the US Internal Revenue Service and to the US Holder as may be required under applicable regulations. Backup withholding may apply to these distributions if the US Holder fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number or certification of exempt status or fails to comply with applicable certification requirements. Certain US Holders are not subject to backup withholding. US Holders should consult their tax advisers about these rules and any other reporting obligations that may apply to the receipt of Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds), including requirements related to the holding of certain "specified foreign financial assets".

4.7 Sweden Taxation

- 4.7.1 This section 4.7 summarises certain Swedish income tax considerations in relation to the Nedbank Unbundling for an Old Mutual Shareholder that is resident in Sweden for tax purposes.
- 4.7.2 Special tax consequences that are not described below may apply for certain categories of taxpayers, including investment companies, mutual funds, life insurance companies and shares held by a partnership or as current assets in a business operation. Further, specific tax consequences may be applicable if, and to the extent that, an Old Mutual Shareholder realises a capital loss on the shares and to any currency exchange gains or losses. Credit of foreign taxes is not addressed in these paragraphs.
- 4.7.3 The Nedbank Unbundling should, for Swedish income tax purposes, be treated as distribution in kind of Unbundled Nedbank Shares (or Cash Proceeds) by Old Mutual. Such distribution should normally be taxable in the hands of Swedish tax resident Old Mutual Shareholders as a regular dividend.
- 4.7.4 Dividends are normally taxed at a rate of 30% for individuals (capital income) and 22% for legal entities (business income). The rate applicable to business income may be reduced to 21.4% in 2019 and further reduced to 20.6% in 2021. The acquisition cost for the Unbundled Nedbank Shares received by way of distribution in kind should be equal to the amount taxed as income on receipt of the Unbundled Nedbank Shares.

Old Mutual Shareholders are reminded that the foregoing taxation summary is a general and non-exhaustive commentary to certain tax consequences of the Nedbank Unbundling and that it does not constitute legal or tax advice. If you are in any doubt as to your tax position, you should consult an independent professional adviser.
